

God's Mandolin

Do you have the faith it takes to move a mountain from its place?
Do you have the strength of ten
when you're looking in the eyes of death?

The wheel of life will have its end
the spirit of God will transcend.
For All God's children live in hope for the day when He'll bring us home.

Cast me in a fiery furnace
a choir of angels will sing deliverance.
Throw me in a lion's den
and I will play God's mandolin.

There was a king in Babylon
who thought his kingdom would go on and on.
Read the writing on the wall
kingdoms rise kingdoms fall

Cast me in a fiery furnace
a choir of angels will sing deliverance.
Throw me in a lion's den
and I will play God's mandolin.
